This is definitely a unique home in a highly sought after and desirable location. The opportunity now exists to purchase this solidly built home on a super-sized 1233m block, ideally located on a tree lined street in Chisholm.

Originally architecturally designed and constructed with quality and practicality in mind. This family-friendly residence started life as a Doctors residence with attached medical rooms. As a result the large flexible floor plan would suit families looking for space with separate independent living options, investors with an eye for potential or buyers with a need for a functional home office arrangement.

With potential for further improvement this property presents an outstanding opportunity to secure a home that
